

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. What is DiamondHands?

DiamondHands ($HANDS) is an innovative project that merges blockchain technology with artificial intelligence (AI) to redefine the creation and value of digital assets. Through AI-generated NFTs and our native token $HANDS, we aim to build a community that celebrates patience, resilience, and long-term vision.

2. How can I acquire DiamondHands NFTs?

DiamondHands NFTs will be available on Magic Eden, one of the leading NFT marketplaces. Users can purchase them with Solana, ensuring fast and cost-effective transactions.

3. What is the $HANDS token?

The $HANDS token is the core of our ecosystem. It is used to access exclusive NFTs, participate in the DAO (Decentralized Autonomous Organization), and generate rewards through staking. The token is built on the Solana blockchain, offering speed and energy efficiency.

4. How can I obtain the $HANDS token?

The $HANDS token will be launched organically on the pump.fun platform. It will later be available on the largest Solana DEXs, such as Raydium and Jupiter. In the near future, it will also be listed on major CEXs like Binance, Bybit, Gate.io, BingX, Coinbase, and others.

5. What is DiamondHands' DAO?

The DAO (Decentralized Autonomous Organization) allows $HANDS holders to participate in decision-making for the project. By using $HANDS, members will be able to vote on key matters related to DiamondHands' future.

6. How does staking work in DiamondHands?

Staking in DiamondHands allows holders of $HANDS and NFTs to earn passive income. By locking up your assets, you will receive rewards for your long-term participation, contributing to the ecosystem's stability.

7. What are the benefits of being part of the DiamondHands community?

Being part of our community means being at the heart of an ecosystem that values resilience and long-term vision. Members enjoy exclusive access to our AI-generated NFTs, staking rewards, and the opportunity to participate actively in the DAO.

8. What are DiamondHands' future plans?

In the short term, we plan to expand our community, launch more NFTs, and continue developing our ecosystem. In the long term, we will introduce advanced AI features, implement staking for all assets, and explore new strategic partnerships.
